

Programme: Hiking and observing the night sky in the Freita Mountain

Weekend: April 2nd/3rd, 2022

1/04 - Friday

Arrival during the afternoon

Interaction with female donkey Boneca and donkey Xico

2/04 - Saturday

9h - Interpretative walk to Freita plateau:

*Observation of Frecha da Mizarela (the biggest natural waterfall in Portugal)

*Visit to the interpretation centre of Pedras Parideiras (geological phenomenon unique in the world)

*Picnic lunch

Dinner at Mira Freita restaurant, during dinner: tales and legends by Irene Tavares Dias

Greenval: guided astronomical observation (with telescope) by student of FCUP

3/04 - Sunday

"Broa" da Paraduça House

*Workshop: "Putting your hands in the dough and baking corn bread"

* Visit to the corn mills

*Tasting

Typical lunch

16h - theatrical show in the village Albergaria da Serra - The Baker of Arouca - staged by the Urze group and performed by the local population

Prices:

Overnight motorhome: 15,00 euros/day

Activities for the 2 days (all mentioned experiences + entrance tickets + workshop + personal accident insurance) - 40,00 euros/person

(Dinner and Pic Nic on Saturday not included in the price)

Children up to 10 years old - 5€ (value of personal accidents insurance)

If you want to enhance your coming to the Freita Mountain and the proximity of the Paiva Walkways and Bridge 516 (longest pedestrian bridge in the world), you can stay since Thursday.

Notes:

- The information presented is of the Host's authorship

- The payment is made directly to Greenval.